In each webinar the co-editors will introduce and present the overall objective of the second edition of the book. This will be followed by a brief presentation by some of the contributors to the book about their approaches and views of Ethical and Responsible tourism in the current global environment. There will then be an opportunity for participants in the webinar to pose questions to the authors and the panel of contributors and thereby to discuss the wider issues.

Marko and Tony look forward to meeting with you virtually, at one of the above times.
